What is the North Devon Wedding Network?

The NDWN is not merely a membership directory, it is an active participating membership network.

We find that members who attend get the most out of being in the network and therefore encourage everyone to come to as many meetings as possible during the year, with a minimum of four.

It's about building relationships to be then able to go forward recommending one another.

The group is semi exclusive, so there will not be more than two members of any service at any one time. With unlimited number of venues able to join.

What will I gain from being a member?
